

I signed up on the NJ DO NOT CALL list because it is an intrusion of my at home and family time to have vendors cold calling my home. Additionally, I do not want vendors calling, particularly telemarketers, evn if I have purchased something from them in the past. My one time purchase does not give them the right to call me. Please do not overturn the NJ regulations. Thanks.